

ZORA KRNJAIĆ

Zora Krnjaić is PhD in developmental psychology. She works as a senior research associate at the Institute of Psychology, Faculty of Philosophy, University of Belgrade. Focus of her work is giftedness, supporting development of intellectual giftedness, expert thinking and positive youth development. She is the author of the book Intellectual Giftedness in Young People, numerous chapters in books and papers in scientific journals and she presented papers in domestic and international conferences. She was member in Network of Experts on Youth Research -Youth Partnership. She is member of International Society for Cultural and Activity Research (ISCAR) and member of European Council for High Abilities (ECHA). She is head of the Commission of Fund for Young Talents of the Republic of Serbia.